

FORUM FOR WOMEN IN DEMOCRACY

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS:

MENTORING WOMEN IN TRANSFORMATIVE LEADERSHIP

Forum for Women in Democracy (FOWODE) is a women's rights national non-partisan organisation established in 1995 to offer a platform for Ugandan women's learning, networking, sharing experiences and advocating for gender equity and equality in decision making processes. Under the Women and Leadership Program (WLP), FOWODE has since 2004 mentored young leaders in Alternative and Transformative Leadership. FOWODE believes in promoting pro-poor and pro-women ideals through which alternative values, visions and leaders can be nurtured and shaped in Uganda. Through her leadership training camps, FOWODE has challenged leaders to advance women's rights, foster accountable leadership and effectively participate in all aspects of political, economic and social life. Today, FOWODE boasts of a cadre of almost 1000 young leaders who are engaged in various leadership positions in institutions of higher learning, private sector, political leadership and within their communities.
